(2) In these Rules words importing the masculine gender shall be taken to include female.

3. Where by these Rules or by any order of the Court any step is required to be taken in connection with any cause, matter or appeal, before the Court, that step shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be taken in the Registry or in the appropriate Branch Registry.

4. Where any particular number of days is prescribed by these Rules, the same shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1908.

5. Save as otherwise expressly provided by these Rules, the provisions of the Code shall not apply to any proceedings in the Court.

6. The amount of any fee, costs, security, allowances and charges as provided in these rules, shall be subject to revision after every three years by the Chief Justice on the recommendation of the committee constituted by him in that behalf.

ORDER IIOFFICES OF THE COURT: SITTINGS AND VACATION

1 Except during the vacation and on Court holidays and subject to any order of the Chief Justice, the offices of this Court shall remain open daily from 8:30 AM to 3:30 PM on weekdays; and from 8:30 AM to 12:00 Noon on Fridays:

Provided that no matter, unless of an urgent nature, shall be received within one hour of the closing time.

2. Except Public or Local holidays as may be notified by the Chief Justice, the offices of this Court shall be open during the vacation and the winter holidays.

3. The judicial year of this Court shall commence on the second Monday in September each year, or if that day is a Court holiday, then on the next working day, and continue until the commencement of the vacation in the year next following.

4. Summer vacation of this Court shall commence on the 15th June or on such date as may be fixed and notified in the Gazette in each year by the Chief Justice on the opening day of the judicial year.

5. The Court shall not ordinarily sit on Saturdays or on any other day that may be set apart for writing of judgements, nor during winter holidays, that is to say, December 18 to 31, both days inclusive, and on any other days notified in the Gazette as Court holidays.

6. A Judge shall be nominated by the Committee before the commencement of vacation and winter holidays for the hearing of all matters which may require to be immediately or promptly dealt with and whenever necessary a Bench of this Court of two or more Judges may likewise be constituted by the Committee for the disposal of cases during the vacation and winter holidays.

ORDER III
OFFICERS OF THE COURT

1. The Registrar shall be the executive head of the Office. He shall have the custody of the records of the Court and shall exercise such powers as are assigned to him by these Rules.
2. The Registrar shall not be absent from the Court without leave of the Chief Justice, and any other Officer of the Court without leave of the Registrar.
3. In the absence of the Registrar, the Additional Registrar and in the absence of the Additional Registrar, the Deputy Registrar or in the absence of the Deputy Registrar, the Assistant Registrar or any other Officer shall perform all the functions of the Registrar, under these Rules.
4. The Chief Justice may assign and the Registrar may, with the approval of the Chief Justice, delegate to an Additional Registrar or a Deputy Registrar or an Assistant Registrar or any other Officer, any functions required by these Rules to be performed by the Registrar.
5. The Registrar shall, subject to any directions by the Chief Justice, allocate the duties of the Registry among the officers of the Court, and shall, subject to these Rules, and to any such direction as aforesaid, supervise and control the officers and servants of the Court.
6. The Seal of the Court shall be such as the Chief Justice may direct, and shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar.
7. Subject to any directions by the Chief Justice, Seal of the Court shall not be affixed to any writ, rule, order, summons or other process save under the authority in writing of the Registrar.
8. The Seal of the Court shall not be affixed to any certified copy issued by the Court, save under the authority in writing of the Registrar.
9. The Registrar shall keep a list of all cases pending before the Court and shall subject to these Rules and any directions given by the Chief Justice, prepare the list of cases ready for hearing and shall cause notice through the modes provided in the Code or other digital means or both to be given thereof and of the day if any, assigned for the hearing of any case or cases in the list.

10. In addition to any other powers under the Rules, and subject to any general or special orders of the Chief Justice, the Registrar shall have the following powers: -

- (a) to require any plaint, petition of appeal, petition for leave to appeal or other matters presented to the Court, to be amended in accordance with the practice and procedure of the Court or to be represented after such requisition as the Registrar thinks proper in relation thereto, has been complied with;
 - (b) to fix the dates of hearing of appeals, petitions or other matters, and issue notices thereof either through ordinary or digital means;
 - (c) to settle the index; and
- to direct any formal amendment of record.

ORDER IVADVOCATES AND ADVOCATES-ON-RECORD

1. There shall be kept separately, a Roll of Senior Advocates, of Advocates and of Advocates-on-Record.

2. A Senior Advocate, an Advocate and an Advocate-on-Record shall be entitled to appear and plead before the Court on signing his respective Roll:

Provided that an Advocate shall not be allowed to sign the Roll unless he produces a certificate of enrolment from the Pakistan Bar Council:

Provided further that the Chief Justice and the Judges may refuse to allow a person to sign the Roll or remove his name from the Roll after affording him an opportunity of oral hearing if he has, at any time, been adjudged guilty of professional misconduct or is otherwise considered unfit to be enrolled or allowed to remain as an Advocate.

3. A Senior Advocate shall have precedence over other Advocates and the provisions of the First Schedule to the Rules shall apply to Senior and other Advocates.

4. A person shall not be qualified for being enrolled as an Advocate unless he:-

- (a) has been for not less than seven years enrolled as an Advocate in a High Court; and
- (b) has been certified in a duly authenticated form by the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court that he is a fit and proper person to appear and plead as an Advocate before the Supreme Court:

Provided that the Chief Justice and Judges may grant the enrollment of a person not qualified as aforementioned, if in their judgement, he is qualified by knowledge, ability and experience to be enrolled as an Advocate.

5. The Chief Justice and the Judges may select, from time to time, from among those whose names are on the Roll of the Advocates, persons who are judged, by their knowledge, ability and experience, to be worthy of being granted the status of Senior Advocate and on signing the Roll of Senior Advocates shall assume the said status. A Senior Advocate shall pay an enrollment fee of rupees ¹[fifty] thousand.

6. No Advocate other than an Advocate-on-Record shall appear or plead in any matter unless he is instructed by an Advocate-on-Record.

7. The Rolls of Senior Advocates, Advocates, and Advocates-on-Record shall be kept by the Registrar and shall contain such particulars as the Court may, from time to time, require.

8. The dress for Senior Advocates, Advocates, and Advocates-on-Record shall be short coat or sherwani of black material. The Senior Advocates may wear the gowns throughout the year.

9. A signing fee of rupees twenty thousand and rupees one hundred thousand shall be charged from an Advocate and a Senior Advocate, respectively.

10. The Attorney-General shall have precedence over all Advocates and Senior Advocates in the Court.

11. The Advocates-General shall have precedence immediately after the Attorney-General:

Provided that the seniority of Advocates-General inter-se shall be determined in accordance with the dates of appointment to their respective offices.

12. The Attorney-General, Additional Attorney-General, Deputy Attorney-General, Advocate-General and Additional Advocate-General shall, by virtue of their offices, have the status of a Senior Advocate in the Supreme Court, notwithstanding that their names are not borne on the Roll of Senior Advocates.

13. Subject to the preceding rules of this Order, an Advocate appearing before the Court shall have precedence among the Senior or other Advocates, as the case may be, according to the date of his enrolment as a Senior or other Advocate, in the Court.

14. An Advocate of five years standing in the Supreme Court shall be qualified to be registered as an Advocate-on-Record, on making an application in this behalf.

15. No Advocate other than an Advocate-on-Record shall be entitled to act for a party in any proceedings in the Court.

¹ Subs. vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025 for "one hundred".

16. No Senior Advocate shall be registered as Advocate-on-Record.
17. Every Advocate-on-Record shall:
- (i) subscribe before the Registrar a declaration in Form 2 or Form 3 of the Forms in Part D of the Sixth Schedule to the Rules, as may be appropriate to his case, undertaking to observe the Rules, Regulations, orders and practice of the Court, and to pay all fees or charges due and payable in any cause, matter or appeal in the Court;
 - (ii) subscribe similarly an indemnity bond in Form 4 of the Forms in the said Schedule; and
 - (iii) pay an enrolment fee of rupees ¹[ten] thousand.
18. Every Advocate shall, before signing his Roll, produce before the Registrar an authenticated copy of his enrollment certificate from the Pakistan Bar Council and a certificate that he is still an Advocate of the High Court.
19. Every Advocate-on-Record shall have an office at the seat of the Registry or any Branch Registry and shall notify the Registrar of the address of his office, his telephone/mobile/digital App number and email address and of any change therein, and any notice, writ, summons or other documents delivered or sent through post or digital means to the Advocate-on-Record at the address, telephone/mobile/digital App number or email address so notified by him, shall be deemed to have been properly served.
20. Two or more Advocates-on-Record may enter into partnership with one another, and any one of them may act in the name of the partnership, provided that the firm has an office at the seat of the Registry or a Branch Registry and is registered with the Registrar. The undertaking prescribed in Rule 17 hereinbefore contained in this Order, shall be subscribed separately by all the partners on behalf of the firm. Any change in the composition of the firm shall be intimated to the Registrar. Any firm of Advocates-on-Record may, in addition to principal office at the seat of the Registry or a Branch Registry, also maintain Branch Office at any district headquarters or other centre of litigation, provided that such Branch Office is under the management and control of a member of the firm who has received training at the principal office of the firm for a period of not less than one year.

21. An Advocate-on-Record who wishes to have his name removed from the Roll of Advocates-on-Record shall apply by petition, verified by an affidavit, entitled “In the matter of an Advocate-on-Record in this Court”, and stating the date of his enrolment as an Advocate-on-Record, the reasons why he wishes his name to be removed, that no application or other proceeding in any Court is pending, or is likely to be instituted against him, and that no fees are owing to the Court for which he is personally liable.

22. Every Advocate-on-Record shall, before acting on behalf of any person or party, file in the Registry or a Branch Registry a Power of Attorney in the prescribed form authorising him to act.

23. A party may file a Power of Attorney authorising another Advocate-on-Record to act for him in the same case with consent of the former Advocate-on-Record; or may revoke Power of Attorney of an Advocate-on-Record and file fresh Power of Attorney authorising another Advocate-on-Record to act for him in the same case.

24. No Advocate-on-Record shall without leave of the Court withdraw from the conduct of any case by reason only of non-payment by his client of fees, costs and other charges.

25. Every Advocate-on-Record in the case shall be personally liable to the Court for due payment of all fees and charges payable to the Court.

26. No person having an Advocate-on-Record in the case shall be heard in person save by special leave of the Court:

Provided that where a person is not represented by an Advocate-on-Record or has been permitted by the Court to appear in person, he shall be subject to same discipline and restrictions as are applicable to an Advocate-on-Record.

27. No Advocate-on-Record shall authorise any person, except another Advocate-on-Record to do any act in his name in any case. The authorisation shall be in writing.

28. Where a party changes his Advocate-on-Record or revokes the Power of Attorney of an Advocate-on-Record, the new Advocate-on-Record or the party shall give notice of the change or revocation to the previous Advocate-on-Record and to all parties concerned.

29. A Senior Advocate, or an Advocate or an Advocate-on-Record who wishes to suspend his practice by reason of his appointment to any office of profit under the Government, or his being engaged in another profession or for any other reason, shall give intimation thereof to the Registrar.

30. Where, on the complaint of any person or otherwise, the Chief Justice or the Court is of the opinion that a Senior Advocate or an Advocate or an Advocate-on-Record has been guilty of misconduct or conduct unbecoming of an Advocate, with regard to any matter concerning the Court, the Chief Justice or the Court may either after affording him an opportunity of oral hearing, take such disciplinary action, including suspension and removal from practice of the Court, against him as it may deem fit, or refer to the Pakistan Bar Council for inquiry and action under the Legal Practitioners and Bar Council Act, 1973.

31. In an appropriate case, where the Chief Justice or the Court is of the opinion that a Senior Advocate or an Advocate-on-Record is unfit to act and plead as such, the Chief Justice or the Court may, after providing him an opportunity of oral hearing, direct removal of his name from the Roll of Senior Advocates or of Advocates-on-Record, as the case may be.

32. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent powers of the Court to make such order and take such action as may be necessary for the conduct and proceedings of the Court.

ORDER VINOTICES OF MOTION

1. Save as otherwise provided by law or these Rules, all applications shall be made before the Court on motion after notice to the parties affected thereby. Where the delay caused by notice would or might entail prejudice or hardship, an application may be made duly supported by an affidavit, for an ad-interim order ex-parte, and the Court, if satisfied that the delay caused by notice would entail prejudice or hardship, may make order ex-parte upon such terms as to costs or otherwise, and subject to such undertaking, if any, as the Court may deem just, pending orders on the main application by notice of motion:

Provided an application pleading urgency or seeking interim relief, filed in any cause, appeal or matter, shall after determination by the Committee or any Officer so authorised, be fixed for hearing before an appropriate Bench within fourteen days from the date of its filing. However, if it is not possible for any reason to fix the same within aforesaid period, the same shall be fixed as soon as may be practicable.

2. A notice of motion shall be instituted in the suit or matter in which the application is intended to be made and shall state the time and place of application and the nature of the order asked for and shall be addressed to the party or parties intended to be affected by it and their Advocate-on-Record, if any, and shall be signed by the Advocate-on-Record of the party moving, or by the party himself where he acts in person.

3. Save by leave of the Court, the notice of motion together with the affidavit in support thereof, shall be served on the opposite party not less than eight days before the day appointed for the motion and the affidavit of service together with the acknowledgement receipt of the service of the notice shall be filed in the Registry or the Branch Registry, as the case may be, at least three days before the day appointed for the motion. Counter affidavits, if any, shall be filed in the Registry or the Branch Registry during office hours not later than one hour before the closing of the Registry or the Branch Registry on the day preceding the day of hearing and copies of those affidavits shall be served on the other parties to the motion and the affidavits shall not be accepted in the Registry or the Branch Registry unless they contain an endorsement of service signed by the other party or parties.

4. Notice shall be given to the other party or parties of all grounds intended to be urged in support of, or in opposition to, any motion.
5. Save by leave of the Court, no affidavit in support of the application beyond those specified in the notice of motion, nor any affidavit in answer or reply filed later than the time prescribed in these Rules shall be used at the hearing or allowed on taxation.
6. Save as otherwise ordered, the costs of a motion in a suit or proceedings shall be treated as costs in that suit or proceeding.

ORDER VIIDOCUMENTS

1. The officers of the Court shall not receive any pleading, petition, affidavit or other document, except original exhibits and certified copies of public documents, unless it is fairly and legibly transcribed on one side of standard petition paper, demy-foolscap / legal size. Copies of documents, if not forming part of the record of the Court appealed from, filed for the use of this Court, shall be certified to be true copies by the Advocate-on-Record for parties presenting the same.

2. Any document in a language other than Urdu or English shall be accompanied by its translation in either of the two languages in accordance with the Rules.

3. Every document required to be translated shall be translated by a translator nominated or approved by the Court on payment of prescribed fees:

Provided that a translation attested by the Advocate-on-Record for both parties, may be accepted.

4. Every translator shall, before acting, make an oath or affirmation that he will translate correctly and accurately all documents given to him for translation, and at the end of the documents he shall certify in writing, signed by him, that the translation is correct.

5. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules all plaints, petitions, appeals and other documents shall be presented in person by the party or by an Advocate-on-Record duly appointed by the party.

6. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules or by any law for the time being in force, the court-fees set out in the Third Schedule to these Rules shall be payable on all documents mentioned therein.

7. The Registrar may decline to receive any document which is presented otherwise than in accordance with these Rules.

ORDER VIIIAFFIDAVITS

1. The Court may at any time, for sufficient reason, order that any particular fact or facts may be proved by affidavit, or that the affidavit of any witness may be read at the hearing, on such conditions as the Court deems reasonable:

Provided that no such order shall be passed where it appears to the Court that either party bona fide desires the production of a witness for cross-examination and that such witness can be produced, without unreasonable delay or expense.

2. Upon an application, evidence may be given by affidavit, but the Court may, at the instance of the other party, order the attendance of the deponent in the Court for cross-examination,¹[either personally or through digital means,] unless he is exempt from personal appearance or the Court otherwise directs.

3. Every affidavit shall be entitled in the cause, matter or appeal in which it is sworn.

4. Every affidavit shall be drawn up in first person, and shall be divided into paragraphs to be numbered consecutively, and shall state the description, occupation, if any, Computerized National Identity Card number, and the true place of abode of the deponent.

5. Affidavits shall be confined to such facts as the deponent is able of his own knowledge to prove, except on interlocutory applications, on which statement of his belief may be admitted, provided that the grounds thereof are stated.

6. The costs occasioned by any unnecessary prolixity in the title to an affidavit or otherwise shall be disallowed by the Taxing Officer.

7. An affidavit requiring interpretation to the deponent shall be interpreted by an interpreter nominated or approved by the Court, if made at the seat of the Court, and if made elsewhere shall be interpreted by a competent person who shall certify that he has correctly interpreted the affidavit to the deponent.

8. Affidavits for the purposes of any cause, matter or appeal before the Court may be sworn before any authority mentioned in section 139 of the Code or before the Registrar of this Court, or before a commissioner generally or specially authorised in that behalf by the Chief Justice, or authenticated by Apostille.

9. Where the deponent is a pardahnashin lady shall be identified by a person to whom she is known and that person shall prove the identification by a separate affidavit.

10. Every exhibit annexed to an affidavit shall be marked with the title and number of the cause, matter or appeal and shall be initialed, dated and stamped by the authority before whom it is sworn.

11. No affidavit having any interlineation, alteration or erasure shall be filed in the Court unless the interlineation or alteration is initialed, or unless in the case of an erasure the words or figures written on the erasure are rewritten in the margin and initialed, by the authority before whom the affidavit is sworn.

12. The Registrar may refuse to receive an affidavit where, in his opinion, the interlineations, alterations or erasures are so numerous as to make it expedient that the affidavit should be rewritten.

13. Where a special time limit is prescribed for filing affidavits, no affidavit, filed after that time shall be used except by leave of the Court.

14. In this Order “affidavit” includes a petition or other document required to be sworn and “sworn” shall include “affirmed”.

ORDER IXINSPECTION, SEARCH, ETC.

1. Subject to the provisions of these Rules and any other law, a party to any cause, matter or appeal, who has appeared shall be allowed to search, inspect, online or physically, or get copies of all pleadings and other documents or records in the case except the documents which are confidential in nature or contain instructions to the office or any other Officer working either under this Court or any other institution, whatever name called, by way of an office note or administrative order passed by the Chief Justice, a Judge or the Registrar, as the case may be, on payment of the prescribed fees and charges.

2. The Court, at the request of a person not a party to the cause, matter or appeal, may on good cause shown allow such search or inspection or grant such copies as is or are mentioned in the last preceding rule, on payment of the prescribed fees and charges.

3. A physical search or inspection under the last two preceding rules during the pendency of a cause, matter or appeal, shall be allowed only in the presence of an Officer of the Court and after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the parties who have appeared, and copies of documents shall not be allowed to be taken, but notes of the search or inspection may be made.

4. Copies required under any of the preceding rules of this Order may be certified as correct copies by any Officer of the Court authorised in that behalf by the Registrar.

5. No record or document filed in any cause, matter or appeal shall, without the leave of the Court, be taken out of the custody of the Court.

ORDER XJUDGEMENTS, DECREES AND ORDERS

1. The Court, after the case has been heard, shall pronounce judgement in open Court, either at once or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their Advocates-on-Record and the decree or order shall be drawn up in accordance therewith. The judgement/order shall be in the format provided in Part A of the Sixth Schedule.
2. Subject to the provisions contained in Order XXVIII, a judgement pronounced by the Court or by majority of the Court or by a dissenting Judge in open Court shall not afterward be altered or added to, save for the purpose of correcting a clerical or arithmetical mistake or an error arising from any accidental slip or omission.
3. Certified copies of the judgement, decree or order shall be furnished on an application made for the purpose and at the applicant's expense.
4. Every decree or order made by the Court, on any matter, shall be drawn up in the Registry in accordance with the law applicable thereto and be signed by the Registrar or Additional Registrar or Deputy Registrar or Assistant Registrar or any authorised Officer and shall bear date and Seal of the Court.
5. Every order made by the Registrar or other Officer shall be drawn up in the Registry and signed by the Registrar or other Officer as the case may be.
6. In case of doubt or difficulty with regard to a decree or order made by the Court, the Registrar shall, before issuing the draft, submit the same to the Judge-in-Chambers.
7. Where a draft of any decree or order is required to be settled in the presence of the parties, the Registrar shall, by notice in writing or through digital means, appoint a time for settling the same and the parties shall attend accordingly and produce their briefs and such other documents as may be necessary to enable the draft to be settled.
8. Where any party is dissatisfied with any decree or order as settled by the Registrar, the Registrar shall not proceed to complete the decree or order without allowing that party sufficient time to apply by motion to the Court.

9. The decree passed or order made in every appeal and a direction or writ issued in any matter by the Court shall be transmitted, through ordinary or digital means, by the Registrar to the Court, tribunal or other authority concerned from whose judgement, decree or order the appeal or matter was brought, and any such decree, order or direction shall be executed and enforced as if it had been made and issued by the concerned High Court.
10. Any order as to the costs of proceedings in the Court, as soon as the amount of the costs to be paid is ascertained, shall be transmitted by the Registrar to the Court or tribunal appealed from or to any other authority concerned, and shall be given effect to by that Court, tribunal or authority as if it were an order made by the concerned High Court.
11. If any question arises as to which High Court shall give effect to the decree, order, direction or writ of this Court, it shall be decided by the Court.

ORDER XICONSTITUTION OF BENCHES

Save as otherwise provided by law or by these Rules every cause, appeal or matter shall be heard and disposed of by a Bench consisting of not less than three Judges to be nominated by the Committee:

Provided that:

- (i) all petitions for leave to appeal ¹[...];
- (ii) appeals from appellate and revisional judgements, and orders made by a Single Judge in the High Court;
- (iii) appeals from judgements/orders of the Service Tribunals or Administrative Courts, and appeals involving grant of bail/cancellation of bail; and
- (iv) appeals from interlocutory orders, may be heard and disposed of by a Bench of two Judges, but the Committee may, in a fit case, refer any cause or appeal as aforesaid to a larger Bench:

Provided further that if the Judges hearing a petition or an appeal are equally divided in opinion, the petition or appeal, as the case may be, shall, in the discretion of the Committee, be placed for hearing and disposal either before another Judge or before a larger Bench to be nominated by the Committee.

(2) Three copies of the above shall be filed in the shape of paper-books alongwith its soft/scanned copy.

5. Within thirty days of the service on him of the petition of appeal, a respondent may, if he so desires, file in the Court his objections, if any, to the grounds taken by the appellant in his petition of appeal, and to the appellant's right to raise in the appeal any question ¹[...]

6. The liability of the parties to pay court-fee in this Court, unless otherwise ordered by this Court, shall not be affected by any order for consolidation of appeals made by the High Court or by this Court.

7. The provisions contained in the succeeding Orders in this Part of the Rules shall apply, mutatis mutandis to appeals under this Order.

8. The provisions contained in this Order shall apply mutatis mutandis to the appeals which are filed under other laws for the time being in force.

ORDER XIIIINTRA-COURT APPEAL

1. Save as otherwise provided by the Constitution, law or these Rules, an appeal shall lie against an order:

(b) from a Bench of this Court exercising contempt jurisdiction to a larger Bench, in the manner provided by the Contempt law.

2. The Intra-Court Appeal shall set forth the grounds questioning the order appealed against; however, the Court, in deciding the appeal, shall not confine itself to such grounds:

Provided that the Court shall not rest its decision on any ground unless the person who may be affected is afforded opportunity of hearing.

3. The Intra-Court Appeal shall be accompanied by:-

(i) certified copy of the order appealed against;

(ii) an affidavit of service of copy of the Intra-Court Appeal on the respondent; and

(iii) seven copies of the above in the shape of paper-books alongwith its soft/scanned copy.

4. Within thirty days of the service on him of the Intra-Court Appeal, a respondent may, if he so desires, file in the Court his objections, if any, to the grounds taken by the appellant in his appeal.

5. The liability of the parties to pay court-fee, unless otherwise ordered by this Court, shall not be affected by any order for consolidation of appeals made by the Court.

6. The provisions contained in the succeeding Orders in this Part of the Rules shall apply, mutatis mutandis to appeals under this Order.

ORDER XIVPETITIONS FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL IN CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

1. A petition for leave shall be submitted in this Court within sixty days of the judgement, decree or final order sought to be appealed from ¹[...]:

Provided that the Court may for sufficient cause extend the time.

2. A petition for leave to appeal shall state succinctly and clearly all points of law which arise for determination and, all such facts as it may necessary to state in order to enable the Court to determine whether such leave ought to be granted, and shall be signed by the counsel and or Advocate-on-Record for the petitioner or by the party himself if he appears in person. The petition shall deal with the merits of the case only so far as is necessary for the purpose of explaining and supporting the particular grounds upon which leave to appeal is sought and where petition is moved through an Advocate-on-Record, it shall cite all previous decisions of the Court, which to the best of his knowledge, bear on the question sought to be raised in the petition.

3. (1) The petitioner shall submit three paper-books in cases which may be heard and disposed of by three-member Bench of this Court and two paper-books of cases which may be heard and disposed of by two-member Bench of this Court, alongwith its soft/scanned copy, unless required otherwise by the Court of:-

- (i) his petition for leave to appeal;
- (ii) the judgement, decree, final order sought to be appealed from, one copy of which shall be certified as correct, together with grounds of appeal or application before the High Court;
- (iii) paper-book of the High Court, if any, and the other record duly attested by the Advocate-on-Record of the petitioner;
- (iv) ²[...]

² The words “the order of the High Court refusing grant of certificate, if any, under sub-clause (f) of clause (2) of Article 185;” omitted Ibid.

- (v) an affidavit in support of allegations of fact prescribed by Rule 4 of Order XVIII, hereinafter contained; and
- (vi) unless a caveat, as prescribed by Order XVIII, Rule 2, has been submitted by the other party, who had appeared in the courts below, an affidavit of service of notice of the intended petition upon such party.

(2) The other parties may get from this court, on payment of prescribed charges, hard or soft/scanned copy of the petition and other documents by submitting application on prescribed form:

Provided that the petitioner or his Advocate-on Record, as the case may be, shall first submit soft/scanned copy and/or original file and after soft/scanned copy and /or original file having been scrutinized and registered by the Office, he shall submit the paper-books, with a certificate that the same have been compared with original and found correct.

4. In an appropriate case the Registrar may require the petitioner to supply, in advance of the hearing of the petition, copies of the orders made in the case by all Courts subordinate to the High Court as well as grounds of the petition of any earlier appeal in case these documents are not already included in the paper-book or record of the appeals as mentioned in Rule 3 of this Order.

5. Save in cases where caveat as prescribed by Rule 2 of Order XVIII has been submitted by the other party who appeared in the Court appealed from, petitions for leave to appeal shall be heard ex parte, but the Court may direct the petitioner to issue notice to the other party as it may deem fit, and adjourn the hearing of the petition which shall be posted for hearing after service of notice on the party concerned and upon affidavit of service by the petitioner. Where the other party who has appeared in the Court appealed from has submitted a caveat as aforesaid, notice of the hearing of the petition shall be given to the caveator, but a caveator shall not be entitled to costs of the petition unless the Court otherwise orders.

6. Where the Court grants leave to appeal it shall, in its order, give such directions, as it may deem fit, for the provision of security by the petitioner for the costs of the respondents as may be awarded by the Court on the disposal of the appeal as well as for printing charges. These directions, as far as they relate to security for costs, shall be subject to modifications at the instance of any party, at any time prior to the hearing of the appeal.

7. Subject to the provisions of these Rules no appeal by leave of this Court shall be fixed for hearing unless the amount of security has first been deposited and subject to any directions of the Court in this behalf, the deposit shall be made within a period of one month from the date of grant of leave to appeal, failing which the leave shall stand rescinded unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

8. Except where otherwise ordered by the Court, the security shall be deposited in cash in the State Bank of Pakistan, under a challan to be issued by the Registrar.

9. Where the appellant has submitted security for the costs of the respondent as well as for the printing charges of the paper-book, the Registrar shall deal with such security in accordance with the directions contained in the order of the Court determining the appeal.

10. After the grant of leave to appeal by this Court, the case shall be registered as an appeal and the Registrar shall transmit a certified copy of the order of the Court to the Registrar of the Court appealed from.

11. Where a petitioner, who has obtained leave to appeal desires, prior to the receipt of the original record of the appeal in this Court, to withdraw his petition, he shall make an application to that effect to the Court and the Court may thereupon make an order dismissing the petition. The security, if entered into by the appellant, shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may deem fit to direct.

12. Save as otherwise provided by the preceding rules of this Order, the provisions of Order XVI and XVIII hereinafter contained shall apply mutatis mutandis to petitions for leave to appeal.

13. The provisions contained in Order XXII shall apply, as far as applicable, in the case of any person seeking leave to appeal to the Court as a pauper.

ORDER XVPREPARATION OF RECORD

1. As soon as a petition of appeal has been submitted in the Registry under Order XII or the Court has made an order granting leave to appeal under Order XIV, the appeal shall be registered and the appellant shall, unless otherwise directed, within sixty days, file in the Registry three paper-books containing available record and the additional documents, if so ordered by the Court, alongwith its soft/scanned copy after scrutiny by the Institution Branch. However, in case of need, the appellant may be required to supply as many paper-books as required to the Court.

2. Where an appeal has been admitted by an order of this Court, the Registrar shall notify the respondents of the order of this Court granting leave to appeal, and shall also transmit a certified copy of the order to the Registrar of the High Court concerned.

3. The Registrar shall then send for the original record from the High Court, and the Registrar of the High Court shall, with all convenient speed, arrange for the transmission of such record to the Registrar of this Court. If printed paper-books had been prepared for use in the High Court, three copies thereof alongwith its soft/scanned copy, shall also be transmitted alongwith the original record.

4. (i) Where the appellant fails to file the required number of paper-books alongwith its soft/scanned copy, within the prescribed time, the Registrar shall call upon him to explain his default, and, if no explanation is offered or if the explanation offered is in the opinion of the Registrar, unsatisfactory, the Registrar may issue a summons to the appellant calling upon him to show- cause before the Court at a time to be specified in the said summons why the leave to appeal should not be rescinded. The respondent shall be entitled to be heard before the Court in the matter of the said summons and to ask for his costs and such other relief as he may be advised. The Court may, after considering the matter of the said summons, rescind the grant of leave to appeal, or give such other directions as the justice of the case may require.

(ii) The respondent shall show due diligence in the matter so far as is required of him, but negligence on his part will not excuse delay in the completion of the record for which the appellant is primarily responsible.

5. In the preparation of the record the printed paper-books prepared for the use of the High Court may be included, if sufficient number of such paper-books is available.

6. Within thirty days from the date of grant of leave to appeal, the appellant shall pay court-fee in respect of the appeal according to the scale laid down in item No.2 of Part I of the Third Schedule to these Rules.

7. Every appellant and each respondent, who has entered an appearance, shall be entitled to receive for his use, soft/scanned copy of the paper-books, or one copy of paper-books if soft/scanned copy is not available, after applying on the prescribed form.

8. The parties shall be severally responsible for placing on the paper-book to be used at the hearing all documents that may be necessary for the due appreciation of the case. In case of objection by any party to the inclusion or non-inclusion of any document which is desired by any other party, such document shall be included but at the cost of the party desiring such inclusion, provided that if the Court, when deciding the appeal, considers that any document so included, was either inadmissible in evidence, or wholly irrelevant or unnecessary for the purpose of the appeal, the costs incurred in respect of such document shall be borne exclusively by the party at whose instance such document was included.

9. For purpose of completion of the record it shall be necessary to include certified copies of the documents, and in case they are not available, copies certified by the Advocate-on-Record to be a true copy shall be filed.

10. As soon as the paper-books are filed by the parties, the Registrar shall require the respondents, who have not already entered appearance, to enter appearance within thirty days.

11. Except where otherwise ordered by the Court, the provisions contained in these Rules shall not be applicable where a petition on grant of leave to appeal has been converted into an appeal by the Court and disposed of accordingly. The appeal shall, however, be registered.

ORDER XVIWITHDRAWAL OF APPEAL, NON-PROSECUTION OF APPEAL, CHANGE OF PARTIES

1. Where an appellant desires to withdraw his appeal, he shall make an application to that effect to the Court. The costs of the appeal and the security, entered into by the appellant, if any, shall then be dealt with in such manner as the Court may deem fit.

2. If an appellant fails to take any step in the appeal within the time fixed for the same by these Rules, or, if no time is specified, it appears to the Registrar that the appellant is not prosecuting his appeal with due diligence, the Registrar shall call upon him to show cause as to why costs of rupees ten thousand should not be imposed and the appeal should not be fixed before the Court for dismissal on account of non-prosecution.

3. The Registrar shall send a copy of the summons mentioned in the last preceding rule to every respondent who has entered an appearance and every such respondent shall be entitled to be heard before the Court and to ask for his costs and other relief.

4. The Court may, after hearing the parties, dismiss the appeal for non-prosecution or give such other directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

5. An appellant whose appeal has been dismissed for non-prosecution may, within thirty days of the order, present a petition praying that the appeal may be restored and the Court may, after giving notice of such application to the respondent, who had entered appearance in the appeal, restore the appeal if sufficient cause is shown on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it deems fit:

Provided that the Court may for sufficient cause extend the time for making such an application.

6. (1) Where at any time between the filing of the petition of appeal and the hearing of the appeal the record becomes defective by reason of the death or change of status of party to the appeal, or for any other reason, an application alongwith telephone/ mobile/ digital app numbers and email of such person, shall be made to the Court, stating who is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record in place of, or in addition to the party on record.

(2) Upon the filing of such an application the Registrar of the Court shall, after notice to the parties concerned, determine who in his opinion is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the record in place of, or in addition to the party on record, and the name of such person shall thereupon be substituted or entered on the record:

Provided that no such order of substitution of revivor shall be made by the Registrar: -

- (i) where a question arises as to whether any person is or is not the legal representative of the deceased party, or
- (ii) where a question of setting aside the abatement of the cause is involved, and in such a case he shall place the matter before the Court for orders:

Provided further that where during the course of the proceedings it appears to the Registrar that it would be convenient for the enquiry that investigation in regard to the person who is to be substituted on record, be made by the Court appealed from or a Court subordinate thereto, the Registrar may place the matter before any Judge-in-Chambers and the Judge-in-Chambers may thereupon make an order directing to the Court appealed from to investigate into the matter either itself or cause an enquiry to be made by a Court subordinate to it, after notice to the parties, and submit its report thereon to this Court within such time as may be fixed by the order. On receipt of the report from the Court below the matter shall be posted before the Judge-in-Chambers again for appropriate orders.

7. An application to bring on record the legal representatives of an appellant or a respondent, who has died or suffered a change of status, shall be made within ninety days of such occurrence:

Provided that the Court may, for sufficient cause extend the time.

ORDER XVIIAPPEARANCE BY RESPONDENT

1. The respondent shall enter an appearance within thirty days of the receipt of notice through ordinary and/or digital means from the Registrar regarding grant of leave to appeal to the appellant, under Rule 2, Order XV, but he may enter an appearance at any time before the hearing of the appeal on such terms as the Court may deem fit.¹[Caveator himself or his Advocate-on-Record, if he is so represented, will provide copy of CNIC, phone/cell number, email address and copy of disability certificate, if any, of the respondent. Phone/cell number, email address of the Advocate-on-Record and Advocate Supreme Court will also be required.]
2. The respondent shall forthwith after entering an appearance give notice thereof to the appellant and endorse a copy of such notice to the Registry.
3. Where there are two or more respondents, and only one, or some, of them enter an appearance, the Appearance Form shall set out the names of the appearing respondents.
4. Two or more respondents may, at their own risk as to costs, enter separate appearances in the same appeal.
5. A respondent who has not entered appearance shall not be entitled to receive any notice relating to the appeal from the Registrar.
6. Where a respondent fails to enter appearance in an appeal within thirty days of service upon him of the notice issued by the Registry under Rule 10 of the Order XV of the Rules the appeal may be set down ex-parte as against the said non-appearing respondent. The Registrar shall give notice of the appeal having been set down ex-parte to the non-appearing respondent:

Provided that the Court may condone the delay and grant such further time to the non-appearing respondent as it may deem fit.

ORDER XVIIIPETITIONS GENERALLY

1. All petitions shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall be fairly and legibly written, typed on one side of standard petition paper demy-foolscap/legal size or on paper ordinarily used in High Courts for transcribing Petitions, with quarter margin and endorsed with the name of the Court appealed from, the full title and Supreme Court number of the appeal to which the petition relates, or the full title of the petition as the case may be and the name ¹], address, phone/cell number, email address of the Advocate-on-Record and Advocate Supreme Court of the petitioner and copy of CNIC, phone/cell number, email address and copy of disability certificate, if any, of all the petitioners, where the petitioner intends to appear in person, will also be required.] Unless the petition is a Consent Petition within the meaning of Rule 8 of this Order at least three copies thereof alongwith its soft/scanned copy shall be filed.

2. Where petition is expected to be filed or has been filed, which does not relate to any appeal pending in the Registry, any person claiming a right to appear before this Court on the hearing of such petition may file a caveat in the matter thereof, and shall thereupon be entitled to receive from the Registrar notice of the filing of the petition, if at the time of the submitting of the caveat such petition has not yet been filed and, if and when the petition has been filed, to require the petitioner to serve him with a copy of the petition and to furnish him, at his own expense, with copies of any papers filed, by the petitioner in support of his petition. The caveator shall forthwith, after submitting his caveat alongwith its soft/scanned copy give notice thereof to the petitioner, if the petition has been filed. ²[Caveator himself or his Advocate-on-Record, if he is so represented, will provide copy of CNIC, phone/cell number, email address and copy of disability certificate, if any, of the respondent. Phone/cell number, email address of the Advocate-on-Record and Advocate Supreme Court will also be required.]

3. Where a petition is filed in the matter of any appeal pending in the Registry, the petitioner shall serve any party who has entered an appearance in the appeal, with a copy of such petition and the party so served shall thereupon be entitled to require the petitioner to furnish him, at the expense of the said party, with copies of any papers filed by the petitioner in support of his petition.

¹ The word “and address, of the Advocate-on-Record, if any, of the petitioner or of the petitioner where the petitioner intends to appear in person” subs. vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025.

² Ins. vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025

4. A petition not relating to any appeal pending in the Registry and any other petition containing allegations of fact which cannot be verified by reference to the record or any certificate or duly authenticated statement of the Court appealed from, shall be supported by an affidavit. Where the petitioner prosecutes his petition in person, the said affidavit shall be sworn by the petitioner himself and shall state therein that to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information and belief, the allegations contained in the petition are true. Where the petitioner is represented by an Advocate-on-Record the said affidavit may be sworn by such Advocate-on-Record and shall, besides stating that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge, information and belief, the allegations contained in the petition are true, show how the deponent obtained his instructions and the information enabling him to present the petition.

5. The Registrar may refuse to receive a petition on the grounds that it has not been filed in accordance with the Rules or is scandalous, but the petitioner may appeal from such refusal to the Judge-in-Chambers within fourteen days.

6. As soon as a petition and all necessary documents are filed the petition shall be registered.

7. Subject to the provisions of Rule 5 of Order XIV, and the next following rule, the Registrar shall as soon as the Court, has appointed a day for the hearing of a petition, notify all parties concerned of the day so appointed.

8. Where the prayer made in a petition is consented to in writing by the opposite party, or where a petition is of a formal and non-contentious character, the Court may, if it deems fit, make an order thereon, without requiring the attendance of the opposite party, and the Registrar shall not in any such case issue notice as provided by the last preceding rule, but shall, with all convenient speed, after the Court has made its order, notify the parties concerned that the order has been made and the date and nature of such order.

9. A petitioner who desires to withdraw his petition, shall give notice in writing to that effect to the Registrar. Where the petition is opposed, the opponent shall, subject to any agreement between the parties to the contrary, be entitled to apply to the Court for his costs, but where the petition is un-opposed, or where, in the case of an opposed petition, the parties have come to an agreement as to the costs of the petition, the petition may, if the Court deems fit, be disposed of in the same way mutatis mutandis as a Consent Petition under the provisions of the last preceding rule.

10. Where a petitioner unduly delays bringing a petition to a hearing, the Registrar shall call upon him to explain the delay and if no explanation is offered, or if the explanation offered is, in the opinion of the Registrar, unsatisfactory, the Registrar may, after notifying all parties interested, place the petition before the Court for such directions as the Court may deem fit to give thereon.

11. At the hearing of a petition not more than one counsel shall be allowed to be heard on one side.

12. Where in the opinion of the Court a petition or application, is frivolous or vexatious, the Court may direct the petitioner or applicant to deposit forthwith an amount which shall not be less than rupees twenty-five thousand as costs of the proceedings, which may be forfeited or paid to the opposite party in the discretion of the Court.

ORDER XIXFILING OF CONCISE STATEMENT AND SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS

1. The appellant and the respondent may submit in the Registry the required number of copies of their concise statements alongwith its soft/scanned copy of the facts of the case and of the arguments upon which they propose to rely at any time before the appeal is set down for hearing.

2. Two or more respondents may, at their own risk as to costs, file separate concise statements alongwith their soft/scanned copy in the same appeal.

3. Each party shall after filing his concise statement, forthwith give notice thereof to the other party and shall thereafter be entitled to receive two copies or a soft/scanned copy of the concise statement filed by the opposite party on his applying therefor.

4. The concise statement shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state, as precisely as possible, in chronological order, the principal steps in the proceedings leading up to the appeal from the commencement thereof down to the admission of the appeal, and thereafter, the contentions to be urged by the party filing the same, and the reasons, therefore, and shall be printed or neatly typed with quarter margin, on one side of standard petition paper, of the same size as the printed record. Reference by page and line to the relevant portions of the record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed or typed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reproduction in the concise statement of long extracts from the record. The counsel preparing the concise statement shall also cite all previous decisions of the Supreme Court to the best of their knowledge, bearing on the questions proposed to be raised in the appeal. The Taxing Officer in taxing the costs of the appeal shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, enquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the concise statement, and may disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

5. (1) The paper-book of the appeal shall be arranged in the following order:-

- (i) Printed or typed record;
- (ii) Supplementary record, if any;
- (iii) Appellant's concise statements, if any; and

(iv) Respondent's concise statement, if any.

(2) The front cover shall bear a printed label stating the title and Supreme Court number of the appeal, the contents of the volume and the names and addresses of the parties' Advocates-on-Record. The short title and Supreme Court number of the appeal shall also be shown at the back.

ORDER XX
HEARING OF APPEALS

1. All appeals filed in the Registry shall, as far as possible, be heard in the order in which they are set down.
2. Adjournment of cases of all kinds for hearing shall only be granted on proper application filed by Advocate-on-Record except where it is sought by a party conducting his case in person.
3. The Registrar shall, subject to the provisions of Order XVII notify the parties to the appeal of the date fixed for the hearing.
4. Video Link Application may be filed not later than 09:00 am of the day when the case is fixed for hearing.
5. Subject to the directions of the Court, at the hearing of an appeal not more than two Advocates shall be heard on one side.
6. The appellant shall not, without the leave of the Court, rely at the hearing on any grounds not specified in his petition of appeal and the concise statement.
7. Where the Court, after hearing an appeal, decides to reserve its judgement therein, the Registrar shall notify the parties concerned of the day appointed by the Court for the announcement of the judgement.

ORDER XXI
MISCELLANEOUS

1. The filing of a petition for leave to appeal or an appeal shall not prevent execution of the decree or order appealed against, but the Court may, subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem fit to impose, order a stay of execution of the decree or order, or order a stay of proceedings, in any case under appeal to this Court.
2. A respondent may apply for the Summary determination of an appeal on the ground that it is frivolous or vexatious, or has been brought for the purpose of delay, and the Court shall make such order thereon as it deems fit.
3. A party to an appeal who appears in person shall furnish the Registrar with postal address, telephone/mobile/digital App number and email address for service, and all documents/notices left at that address, or sent through post or through telephone/mobile/digital App number and email address shall be deemed to have been duly served.

ORDER XXIIPAUPER, APPEALS, PETITIONS, ETC.

1. The provisions of Order XLIV in the First Schedule to the Code shall, with necessary modifications and adaptations, apply in the case of any person seeking to appeal to the Court as a pauper.

2. An application for permission to proceed as a pauper shall be made on petition, setting out concisely in separate paragraphs, the facts of the case and the relief prayed, and shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel that the petitioner has reasonable grounds of appeal. It shall be also accompanied by an affidavit from the petitioner disclosing all the property to which he is entitled and the value thereof, other than his necessary wearing apparel and his interest in the subject-matter of the intended appeal, and stating that he is unable to provide sureties, and pay Court-fees. The Registrar on satisfying himself that the petition is in order, may himself enquire into the pauperism of the petitioner after notice to the other parties in the case and to the Attorney-General, or refer the matter to the Registrar of the High Court, and the High Court either itself or by a Court subordinate to the High Court investigate into the pauperism after notice to the parties interested and make a report thereon within thirty days after the receipt of the reference from this Court:

Provided that no reference as aforesaid shall be necessary where the petitioner had been permitted to prosecute his appeal in forma pauperis in the Court appealed from.

3. The Court may allow an appeal to be continued in forma pauperis after it has begun in the ordinary form.

4. Where the petitioner obtains leave of the Court to appeal as a pauper he shall not be required to pay court-fees or to furnish security for the costs of the respondent.

5. Where the appellant succeeds in the appeal, the Registrar shall calculate the amount of court-fees which would have been paid by the appellant if he had not been permitted to appeal as a pauper and incorporate it in the decree or order of the Court; such amount shall be recoverable by the Federal Government from any party ordered by the Court to pay the same, and shall be the first charge on the subject-matter of the appeal.

6. Where the appellant fails in the appeal or is dispaupered the Court may order the appellant to pay the court-fees, which would have been paid by him if he had not been permitted to appeal as a pauper.

7. The Federal Government shall have the right at any time to apply to the Court to make an order for the payment of proper court-fees under the last two preceding rules.

8. In every pauper appeal the Registrar shall, after the disposal thereof, send to the Federal Government a memorandum of the court-fees due and payable by the pauper.

ORDER XXIIICRIMINAL APPEALS UNDER ARTICLE 185(2) OF THE CONSTITUTION

1. Criminal Appeals under sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of clause (2) of Article 185 shall be filed within sixty days from the date of the judgement or final order appealed from ¹[...]:

Provided that the Court may for sufficient cause extend the time.

2. The appeal shall be in the form of a petition in writing, which shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the judgement or final order appealed against ²[...]. The appellant shall file five paper-books alongwith the soft/scanned copy of his appeal and the accompanying documents after scrutiny by the concerned Branch. However, in case of need, the appellant may be required to supply as many paper-books as required to the court. The appellant shall also submit a certificate that the paper-book of the case has been provided to the Attorney-General, Advocate-General, Prosecutor General and the respondents, as the case may be.

3. The appellant, if he is in jail, may present his petition of appeal and the accompanying document to the Officer in-Charge of the jail, who shall forward them forthwith to the Registrar of this Court.

4. On receipt of the petition of appeal, the Registrar shall cause notice through ordinary or digital means of the appeal to be given to the Attorney-General or Advocate-General/Prosecutor General/Special Prosecutor of the concerned Government, as the case may require. In cases where the appeal is by the Government/State, the Registrar shall cause notice through ordinary or digital means to the accused.

5. In the case of an appeal arising out of proceeding under the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947, the Registrar shall cause notice of the appeal to be given also to the Governor of the State Bank of Pakistan, where the said Bank is not impleaded as a party.

¹ The words “and in case of Criminal Appeals under sub-clause (f) ibid, within sixty days from the date of the certificate of the High Court” omitted vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025.

² The words “and in the case of an appeal under sub-clause (f) of clause (2) of Article 185, also by a certified copy of a certificate granted by the High Court” omitted vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025.

6. The Registrar shall thereafter send a copy of the petition of appeal in cases involving the sentence of for a period of ten years or more or death to the High Court concerned for its record, and require the Registrar of the High Court through ordinary or digital means to transmit to this Court the original record of the appeal alongwith the records of the Courts below ¹[and Police File] with all convenient speed ²[which shall be made available before the Court on the first date of hearing.] However, in cases involving sentence for a period of less than ten years, the relevant record shall be summoned on the directions of the Bench hearing the case. In case where paper-books of the appeal were printed/typed for use in the High Court, five copies thereof, or such lesser number as the Registrar may specify, shall also be transmitted alongwith the original record. The record shall be prepared at the expense of the appellant, unless the Court orders otherwise, but in appeals involving the sentence of death, or imprisonment for life, the record shall be prepared at the expense of the concerned Government. ³[If a Proclaimed Offender, being co-accused of a convict, is arrested and his trial is to commence, the office shall prepare photocopy of the record, under the signatures of an officer designated by the Registrar, to be kept for the convict and shall return the original record to the trial Court. However, no certified copy of such record shall be issued to any person by the office.]

7. (1) In an appropriate case, the Court ⁴[or judge in chamber] may direct the engagement of an Advocate for an accused person out of the panel of advocates maintained for the purpose. Such a panel of advocates shall be maintained on the recommendation of a committee to be constituted for such purpose by the Chief Justice.

(2) In such a case the engagement of an Advocate-on-Record to instruct the Advocate shall not be necessary.

The fee of Advocate so engaged shall be fifty thousand rupees or such amount as may be fixed by the Court hearing the petition/appeal. The Advocate so nominated shall be entitled to half of the fee at the time of nomination and the remaining fee at the conclusion of the case.

(3) If an Advocate so nominated does not pursue the matter without disclosing any sufficient cause, the Court may order removal of his name from the panel of the advocates maintained for the purpose, and he shall not be entitled for the remaining fee.

8. Due notice through ordinary or digital means shall be given to the parties concerned of the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal. The accused may, where he so desires, present his case by submitting his arguments in writing and the Court shall consider the same at the hearing of the appeal.

9. The Court may, where it thinks fit so to do in the interests of justice, direct the production of an accused person at the hearing of the appeal.

10. After the disposal of the appeal, the Registrar shall, with the utmost expedition, send a copy of the Court's judgement or order to the High Court concerned.

11. Pending the disposal of any appeal under this Order the Court may order that the execution of the sentence or order appealed against be stayed on such terms as the Court may think fit.

12. In criminal proceedings, no security for costs shall be required to be deposited and no court-fee, process-fee or search-fee shall be charged except copying charges and in case of appeals filed through the jail authorities, the copying-fee shall also not be charged.

13. Save as aforesaid the provisions contained in the Orders in this Part shall, mutatis mutandis apply, so far as may be, to Criminal Appeals under this Order, except that concise statement will not be filed in Criminal Appeals unless ordered by the Court.

14. If parties have entered into a compromise, in a compoundable offense, then:

(1) a compromise application, on pro forma prescribed in Part B of the Sixth Schedule, may be filed, which must be fixed before the Court in two weeks;

(2) The Court shall refer the matter to the trial court, which shall verify the list of legal heirs of the deceased, record their statements and verify the genuineness of the compromise, and forward the report to the Court within a period of four weeks:

Provided that the trial Court shall state whether the interests of the minor(s), if any, have been protected, and

(3) Once the report is received, the office shall fix the compromise application before the Court within a period of two weeks.

ORDER XXIVPETITIONS FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL AND APPEALS ARISING THEREFROM IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

1. Save as hereinafter provided, the provisions with respect to petitions for leave to appeal in civil proceedings contained in Order XIV of this Part shall mutatis mutandis apply to petitions for leave to appeal in criminal matters except that no court-fee, process-fee or search-fee shall be charged but the copying-fee shall be charged except in petitions through jail.

2. A Petition for leave to appeal in criminal matter shall be filed within sixty days from the date of judgement or final order sought to be appealed from ¹[...]:

Provided that the Court may, for sufficient cause shown, extend the time.

3. The petitioner, if he is in jail, may present his petition for leave to appeal in respect of his own conviction alongwith the accompanying documents, including any written arguments which he may desire to advance, to the Officer-in-charge of the Jail, who shall forthwith forward them to the Registrar.

4. ²[The Registrar shall place all the criminal petitions and the accompanying documents so received before the Court, and the Court may, upon perusal of the papers, reject the petition summarily after hearing the petitioner, if it considers that there is no sufficient ground for granting leave to appeal.]

5. In the case of a petition for leave to appeal involving a sentence of death, the Registrar shall, as soon as the petition is filed or received from the Office-in-charge of a Jail, intimate either through ordinary or digital means the fact of the petition having been filed/received in the Court to the concerned Government /State and thereupon the execution of the sentence of death shall be stayed pending the disposal of the petition, without any express order of the Court in this behalf:

¹ The words “, or as the case may be, from the date of the order refusing certificate under sub-clause (f) of clause (2) of Article 185 of the Constitution” omitted vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025.

² Subs. ibid for “Except in cases involving the sentence of death, the Registrar shall place the petition and the accompanying documents so received before the Court, and the Court may, upon perusal of the papers, reject the petition summarily without hearing the petitioner in person, if it considers that there is no sufficient ground for granting leave to appeal.”

Provided that unless otherwise ordered by the Court, this rule shall not apply to the petitions filed on behalf of a condemned prisoner, who has exhausted all his legal remedies by way of petition for leave to appeal, appeal or review in this Court and whose mercy petition has been rejected by the concerned authorities.

6. (1) As soon as necessary documents are available the Registrar shall, if the petitioner has been sentenced to death, assign an Advocate from a panel of advocates maintained for the purpose. In such a case, the engagement of an Advocate-on-Record to instruct the Advocate shall not be necessary.

(2) The fee of Advocate so assigned shall be fifty thousand rupees or such amount as may be fixed by the Court hearing the petition/ appeal. The Advocate so nominated shall be entitled to half of the fee at the time of nomination and remaining at the conclusion of the case.

(3) If an Advocate so nominated does not pursue the matter without disclosing any sufficient cause, the Court may order removal of his name from the panel of the advocates maintained for the purpose, and he shall not be entitled for the remaining fee.

7. In the case of a petition for leave to appeal in respect of a proceeding under the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947, the Registrar shall cause notice of the petition also to be given to the Governor of the State Bank of Pakistan, where the said Bank is not impleaded as a party.

8. Pending the disposal of a petition under this Order, the Court may direct that execution of any order for imprisonment or fine, against which leave to appeal is sought, be stayed, on such terms as the Court may deem fit:

Provided that unless surrender is first made before the court to an order of imprisonment, as above, the petition shall not be entertained:

Provided further that petitions involving bail before arrest may be entertained and posted for hearing if the petitioner undertakes to appear and surrender in Court.

9. In case the Court grants leave to appeal in a petition against acquittal, the Court shall not direct that the respondent be arrested and may direct the respondent to furnish substantial surety to ensure his appearance before the Court at the time of hearing. If the respondent intentionally avoids appearing before the Court, the Court may take coercive measures as provided under the law.

10. After the grant of petition or application for leave to appeal by the Court appealed from. The Court appealed from shall then arrange for the transmission of the original record of the appeal including the records of the Court below ¹[and Police File] with all convenient speed. In cases where paper-books of the appeal were printed/typed for use in the High Court, five copies of the paper-books of the appeal in the High Court, alongwith the original record, and soft/scanned copy thereof shall be transmitted to this Court.

11. The paper-books for use in the Supreme Court shall be prepared at the expense of the appellant unless otherwise ordered by the Court, but in cases involving the sentence of death or imprisonment for life, these shall be prepared at the expense of the concerned Government.

12. The provisions contained in Order XXIII shall so far as practicable, apply to Criminal Appeals arising under this Order except that the record shall be prepared at the expense of the appellant.

PART III

ORDER XXV

PETITIONS FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL UNDER ARTICLE 212(3) OF THE CONSTITUTION

A petition for leave to appeal from the judgement, decree or order of an Administrative Court or Service Tribunal shall specify succinctly in separate paragraphs, the substantial questions of law of public importance upon which leave is sought and, in other respects, the provisions of Orders XIV to XXIII of these Rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to such petition or appeal, as the case may be, except that no security for costs shall be required to be deposited and no court-fee, process-fee, search-fee or copying-fee shall be charged.

¹ Order XXVI omitted vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025. Before omission it was as follows;

“ORDER XXVIAPPLICATIONS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

1. A petition for a writ of habeas corpus shall be filed in the Registry or a Branch Registry and shall be accompanied by an affidavit by the person restrained, stating that the application is made at his instance and setting out the nature and circumstances of the restraint. The application shall also state whether the applicant has moved the High Court concerned for the same relief and, if so, with what result

Provided that where the person restrained is unable owing to the restraint to make the affidavit, the application shall be accompanied by an affidavit to the like effect made by some other person, which shall state the reason why the person restrained is unable to make the affidavit himself:

Provided further that once a petition for habeas corpus under clause (3) of Article 184 of the Constitution is filed, it must be fixed for hearing as early as possible but not later than seven days from date of its filing.

2. No court-fees shall be payable on petitions for habeas corpus or other petitions under clause (3) of Article 184 of the Constitution arising out of criminal proceedings or other proceedings connected with such petitions.

3. If the Court is of the opinion that a prima facie case for granting the application is made out, a rule nisi shall be issued calling upon the person or persons against whom the order is sought, to appear on a day to be named therein to show cause why such order should not be made and at the same time to produce in Court the body of the person or persons alleged to be illegally or improperly detained then and there to be dealt with according to law.

4. On the return day of such rule or any day to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, the Court shall, after hearing such parties as are present and wish to be heard, make such order as in the circumstances it considers to be just and proper.

5. In disposing of any such rule, the Court may, in its discretion, make such order for costs as it may consider just.

6. An application for the enforcement of any other fundamental right shall be filed in the Registry. It shall set out the name and description of the applicant, the relief sought, and the grounds on which it is sought, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit verifying the facts relied on, and at least eight copies of the said application and affidavit shall be filed in the Registry. It shall also state whether the applicant has moved the High Court concerned for the same relief and, if so, with what result. The application shall be made by notice of motion, but the Registrar may in appropriate cases put up the application before the Court for orders as to the issue of notice.

7. Unless the Court otherwise directs, such application shall be heard on a day having at least eight clear days between the service of the notice of motion and the day stated therein for the hearing of the motion.

8. Copies of the said application and the affidavit in support thereof shall be served with the notice of motion and every party to the proceeding shall supply to any other party, on demand and on payment of the proper charges, copies of any affidavit filed by him.

9. The notice shall be served on all persons directly affected, and on such other persons as the Court may direct:

Provided that on the hearing of any such motion, any person who desires to be heard in opposition to the motion and appears to the Court to be a proper person to be heard, shall be heard, notwithstanding that he has not been served with the notice of motion and shall be liable to costs in the discretion of the Court.

10. The Court may in such proceedings impose such terms as to costs and as to the giving of security as it deems fit.

11. The provisions of Order XIII relating to Intra-Court Appeal and Order XVIII relating to petitions shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to applications under this Order.”

ORDER XXVIITRANSFER OF CASES*¹[PART A*UNDER ARTICLE 186A OF THE CONSTITUTION]*PART B*UNDER SECTION 25A OF THE FAMILY COURTS ACT

1. On the application of any of the parties, or of its own motion, the Court may at any stage transfer any suit, appeal or other proceedings under the Family Courts Act, 1964, pending before a Court in one Province to a Court in another Province, competent to try and dispose of the same.
2. The application mentioned in the above rule shall be registered as 'Family Transfer Application' and notice thereof shall be issued to the other party(ies).
3. The Registrar shall, after notice to the parties concerned, fix the application before the Court for hearing, within fourteen days.

¹ Order XXVII Part A omitted vide S.R.O. 2264(I)/2025 dated 26.11.2025. Before omission it was as follows;

"Part AUNDER ARTICLE 186A OF THE CONSTITUTION

1. On the application of any of the parties, or of its own motion, if the Court considers it expedient to do so in the interest of justice, shall transfer any case, appeal or other proceedings, pending before any High Court to any other High Court or to itself.
2. The application mentioned in the preceding rule shall be registered as a 'Transfer Application' and notice thereof shall be issued to the parties concerned.
3. The Registrar shall, after notice to the parties concerned, fix the transfer application before the Court for hearing, as soon as possible.
4. If the Court considers it expedient, in the interest of justice, to decide such case, appeal or other proceedings itself, the same shall be withdrawn from that Court and registered in this Court accordingly"

PART IVORDER XXVIII*REVIEW

1. Subject to the law and the practice of the Court, the Court may review its judgement or order in a Civil proceeding on grounds similar to those mentioned in Order XLVII, Rule 1 of the Code and in a criminal proceeding on the ground of an error apparent on the face of the record ¹[, or for any other sufficient reason].

2. Application for review shall be filed in the Registry within thirty days after the pronouncement of the judgement or order, as the case may be, which is sought to be reviewed. The applicant shall, after filing the application, for review, forthwith give notice thereof to the other party and endorse a copy of such notice to the Registry.

3. Every application for review shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the judgement or order complained of, and when the application proceeds on the ground of a discovery of fresh evidence, certified copies of the documents, if any, relied upon, shall be annexed to the application together with an affidavit setting forth the circumstances under which such discovery has been made.

4. The Advocate or the party, signing the application shall specify in brief the points upon which the prayer for review is based and shall add a certificate to the effect that consistently with the law and practice of the Court, a review would be justifiable in the case. The certificate shall be in the form of a reasoned opinion.

5. In case the Court comes to the conclusion that :

- (a) the Review Application filed by the Advocate or the Advocate-on-Record was vexatious or frivolous, he shall render himself liable to disciplinary action and/or costs of not less than rupees twenty-five thousand; or
- (b) the Review Application filed by the party was vexatious or frivolous, he shall render himself liable to costs of not less than rupees twenty-five thousand.

6. No application for review shall be entertained unless party seeking review furnishes a cash security of rupees ²[fifteen] thousand to be deposited in the designated account of the Court. The security amount shall be forfeited by the Court, if such application is dismissed.

² Subs. ibid for the word 'fifty'.

7. As far as practicable, the application for review shall be fixed before the same Bench, or in case the author Judge recuses, retires or resigns, such application shall be heard by a Bench comprising one or more Judges of the Bench that delivered the judgement or order sought to be reviewed.

8. After the final disposal of the first application for review no subsequent application for review shall lie to the Court and consequently shall not be entertained by the Registry.

9. In the case of a petition for review involving a sentence of death, the Registrar shall, as soon as the petition is filed or received from the Officer-in-charge of a Jail, intimate either through ordinary or digital means the fact of the petition having been filed/received in the Court to the concerned Government and thereupon the execution of the sentence of death shall be stayed pending the disposal of the petition, without any express order of the Court in this behalf:

Provided that unless otherwise ordered by the Court this rule shall not apply to the review petitions filed on behalf of a condemned prisoner, who has exhausted all his legal remedies by way of petition for leave to appeal, appeal or review in this Court and whose mercy petition has been rejected by the concerned authorities.

PART VORDER XXIX*PROCEEDING IN RELATION TO THE CONTEMPT OF COURT

1. The Court may take cognizance of its contempt suo motu or on a petition by any person in a manner provided in the law in force on the subject.
2. A petition for proceedings under this Order shall be registered as original petition and the provisions of Order VI Part I shall apply as nearly as may be.
3. The petition shall state succinctly and clearly all relevant facts constituting the contempt of the Court and shall be supported by affidavit of the petitioner, if any.
4. Notice of the petition alongwith the statement of allegations and affidavit, if any, shall be served on the person complained against (hereinafter called 'the respondent'). The notice shall require the respondent to appear in person and unless the Court otherwise directs, he shall appear on each subsequent hearing and, if so required, shall enter into recognizance with one or more sureties.
5. Where the alleged contempt consists of willful disobedience of a judgement, decree, direction, order, writ or other process of the Court or a breach of an undertaking given to the Court or a Judge-in-Chambers by a company registered under the Companies law in force or a statutory corporation or a partnership firm, the notice shall be served upon each director or partner as the case may be, and such other person who at the time of alleged contempt were incharge of or responsible for the conduct of the company, corporation or firm, as the case may be.
6. Where the Court is satisfied by an affidavit or otherwise, that the respondent is avoiding service, it may adopt any procedure to procure his attendance, including issuance of bailable or non-bailable warrants for his arrest.
7. (1) Where the contempt consists of words or acts of visible signs which tend to prejudice a party to a proceeding before the Court or tend to scandalize the Court or any Judge or otherwise tend to bring the Court or a Judge in relation to his office into hatred, ridicule or contempt, the matter shall, in the first instance, be placed before the Chief Justice and such Judges as the Chief Justice may nominate to consider the expediency or propriety of taking action in the matter.

(2) If the Chief Justice and the Judges referred to in sub-Rule (1) decide that action should be taken in the matter, a notice of the proceedings shall issue to the Attorney-General who shall in that event be under a duty to conduct the proceedings.

8. (1) The respondent shall, on the first hearing, file a written statement in answer to the allegations leveled against him and shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to adduce evidence in his defence.

(2) No oath shall be administered to the respondent unless he chooses to appear as his own witness.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, where the contempt is committed in the face of the Court or a Judge-in-Chambers, the Court or the Judge, as the case may be, may proceed forthwith to determine the guilt of the respondent and award him punishment under the law.

10. If at any time during the pendency of the proceedings under this Order or thereafter but before the execution of the sentence, the respondent tenders unqualified apology, the Court may consider such apology and make such order as it considers fit.

11. The Court may award such costs as it deems fit in the circumstances of the case. The costs if any, shall be recovered as fine under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

PART VIORDER XXX*PART A*COSTS

1. Subject to any statute or these Rules, the costs incidental to all proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court; however, the amount of costs shall not be less than rupees twenty-five thousand. Unless the Court otherwise orders an intervener shall not be entitled to costs.

2. Where it appears that the hearing of any appeal or matter cannot conveniently proceed by reason of the neglect of the Advocate-on-Record of any party to attend personally, or by some proper person on his behalf, or because of his omission to deliver any paper necessary for the use of the Court which ought to have been delivered, the Advocate-on-Record shall personally pay to all or any of the parties such costs as the Court may think fit to award.

3. Where it appears to the Court that an Advocate or a party seeks adjournment for which sufficient cause is not shown, the Court may impose compensatory costs on the Advocate or, as the case may be, the party seeking such adjournment. Costs may also be imposed on a party who files false or vexatious appeal or other proceedings and thereby wastes the time of the Court.

PART BTAXATION

1. The Registrar, an Additional Registrar, a Deputy Registrar and an Assistant Registrar or any other Officer shall be the Taxing Officer, Additional Taxing Officer, the Deputy Taxing Officer and the Assistant Taxing Officer or other Taxing Officer of the Court respectively.

2. The Chief Justice may assign and the Taxing Officer may, with the approval of the Chief Justice, delegate to an Additional Taxing Officer or a Deputy Taxing Officer or an Assistant Taxing Officer any functions required under the Rules, to be exercised by the Taxing Officer.

3. The Court may, in any proceedings where costs are awarded to any party, direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs, and may direct by and to whom that sum shall be paid.

4. Where in the opinion of the Taxing Officer the maximum fee allowed by these Rules is insufficient or a fee ought to be allowed for any matter not provided for in these Rules, he may refer the matter to the presiding Judge of the Bench hearing the appeal, cause or matter and the Judge may make such order thereon as to the allowance of the whole or any part of the amount proposed by the Taxing Officer as he thinks fit.

5. Where the Taxing Officer is of the opinion that any costs have been occasioned by the negligence or improper conduct of any Advocate-on-Record he shall not allow any charge for the same.

6. In all cases of taxation as between party and party, the bill shall be filed for taxation as between party and party and, unless the client expresses his desire to the contrary in writing, also as between Advocate-on-Record, and client.

7. Every bill of costs filed for taxation shall specify the exact number of pages contained in the bill filed.

8. Every bill of costs shall be properly dated throughout and shall show in a column for the purpose the money paid out of pocket.

9. Every bill of costs shall be certified by the signature of the Advocate-on-Record from whose office it is issued.

10. The fees for taxation and registration of every bill of costs shall be paid in court-fee stamps when the bill is filed for taxation.

11. Every bill of costs shall, whenever possible, be accompanied by vouchers, and every item of disbursement and the cause thereof shall be distinctly specified, and no payment out of pocket shall be allowed except on production of the necessary voucher, or in the case of Advocate's fees, without the receipt of the Advocate that the fee has been paid:

Provided that a Taxing Officer may dispense with the production of a receipt of the fee paid to the Attorney-General or the Advocate-General.

12. Within one month from the date of the signing of the judgement or order awarding costs, or within such further time as the Taxing Officer may for good cause allow, the party to whom the costs have been awarded shall file in the Registry the bill of costs and vouchers accompanied by a certified copy of the decree or formal order drawn up in the case. Where in the opinion of the Taxing Officer the filing of a bill of costs has been unduly delayed, the Taxing Officer may return the bill and shall not receive or tax the same except by order of the Court.

13. The Party having the charge of the bill shall, within fourteen days or within such further period as the Taxing Officer may for good cause allow, serve on the opposite party a copy of the bill of costs and file in the Registry an affidavit of service. In default of the filing of such affidavit within the time aforesaid or within the further period allowed by the Taxing Officer, the Taxing Officer may return the bill and vouchers and shall not thereafter receive or tax the bill except by order of the Court:

Provided that, where the Taxing Officer is satisfied that the party having the charge of the bill has made all reasonable efforts to have the copy of the bill served and has failed, the Taxing Officer may dispense with such affidavit, and may receive and tax the bill.

14. As soon as the affidavit of service referred to the last preceding rule has been filed, the Taxing Officer shall fix a date for taxation of the bill and shall notify the parties of the date fixed.

15. The Taxing Officer shall allow such costs of procuring the advice on evidence of an Advocate, and of employing an Advocate to settle pleadings and affidavits, as the Taxing Officer in his discretion thinks just and reasonable.

16. In case of taxation as between Advocate-on-Record and client where the fees are payable by the client personally or out of a fund belonging entirely to him, the Taxing Officer shall allow, as fees to Advocates, all sums actually paid, but not exceeding those set out in the Second Schedule to these Rules, unless the written consent of the client is produced.

17. Where an Advocate-on-Record acts for different parties to the same suit, appeal or matter, only one set of attendance shall be allowed, unless the Court otherwise orders.

18. Where two or more appeals arising out of a single proceeding are heard together and costs are awarded in both or all of them only one set of counsel's fee shall be allowed for the hearing unless the presiding Judge of the Bench hearing the appeals otherwise directs.

19. Where on the taxation of a bill of costs payable out of a fund or out of the assets of a company in liquidation, the amount of the professional charges and disbursements contained in the bill is reduced by a sixth part or more, no costs shall be allowed to the Advocate-on-Record lodging the bill for taxation for drawing or copying it, nor for attending the taxation.

20. Where on taxation of an Advocate-on-Record's bill of costs as between Advocate-on-Record and client, the amount of the bill is reduced by a sixth part or more, the Advocate-on-Record shall pay the costs of taxation including the costs of the Advocate-on-Record if any, employed in contesting the bill and the same shall be deducted by the Taxing Officer, but the Taxing Officer may certify any special circumstances relating to the bill or taxation and the Court may upon application by the Advocate-on-Record whose bill has been taxed make any such order as the Court may think just and equitable with respect to the costs of the taxation.

21. No court-fee shall be payable by an applicant to proceed in forma pauperis except the fee for the petition to proceed.

22. In the taxation of costs as between party and party, the costs of and incidental to the attendance of an Advocate on summons or other matters in Chambers shall not be allowed unless the court certified that it was a fit case for the employment of an Advocate.

23. Unless specially allowed by the Taxing Officer, no allowance shall be made in party and party taxation for work done before the commencement of proceedings in the Court, except for necessary letter of demand and the reply thereto, if any, for receiving instructions to sue to defend, or to appeal, and searches necessary for the purpose of instituting or defending proceedings.

24. In every case of taxation as between Advocate-on-Record and client, the client shall be duly summoned by the Taxing Officer to attend the taxation, unless the Taxing Officer shall see fit to dispense with his attendance taxation, unless the Taxing Officer shall see fit to dispense with his attendance.

25. No retaining fee to an Advocate shall be allowed on taxation as between party and party.

26. Any party who is dissatisfied with the allowance or disallowance by the Taxing Officer of the whole or any part of the items in a bill of costs may apply to the Taxing Officer to review the taxation in respect thereof.

27. An application to review shall be made within a week from the date of the passing of the bill by the Taxing Officer. The application shall contain objections in writing specifying concisely therein items or parts of the bill allowed or disallowed and grounds for the objection.

28. The Taxing Officer shall serve fourteen days' notice of the application on the opposite party. A copy of the application shall accompany the notice.

29. Objections which were not taken in at the time of the taxation shall not be taken in at the stage of review unless allowed by the Taxing Officer.

30. The Taxing Officer may, where he thinks fit, issue, pending the consideration of any objections, a preliminary allocation for or on account of the remainder of the bill of costs.

31. Upon application to review, the Taxing Officer shall reconsider his taxation upon the objections carried in and may, where he thinks fit, receive further evidence in respect thereof, and shall state in a certificate the grounds of his decision thereon and any special facts or circumstances relating thereto.

32. Any party dissatisfied with the decision of the Taxing Officer on review may, not later than seven days from the date of the decision or within such further time as the Taxing Officer or the Court may allow, apply to the Court for an order to review the decision of the Taxing Officer and the Court may thereupon make such order as may seem just, but the taxation made by the Taxing Officer shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which shall not have been objected to in the manner aforesaid.

33. No evidence shall be received by the Court upon the review of the Taxing Officer's decision which was not before the Taxing Officer when he taxed the bill or reviewed his taxation unless the Court otherwise directs.

34. The certificate of the Taxing Officer by whom a bill of costs has been taxed shall unless it is set aside or altered by the Court be final as to the amount of costs covered thereby.

35. Except as otherwise specially provided in these Rules, the fees set out in the Second and Fourth Schedules to these Rules may be allowed to Advocates, Advocates-on-Record and Officers of the Court.

36. In defended appeals, the first day's hearing fee shall be allowed in full as fixed under the Second Schedule, for the first four and a half hours of the hearing or part thereof, subject to the provisions contained in rules 38 and 39.

37. No refresher shall be allowed unless the hearing has lasted for more than four and a half hours and the Taxing Officer shall have discretion to reduce the refresher or to allow an additional refresher having regard to the duration of the hearing after the first four and a half hours. The refresher shall however not be reduced by more than one half.

38. Where the hearing of a part-heard case is held up on account of the Court being occupied with any other matter, the time taken in the hearing of such matter shall be taken into consideration by the Taxing Officer for purposes of a refresher.

39. In cases involving less than one million rupees in value, the Taxing Officer shall have discretion to reduce the fees, including the first day's hearing fee and the fee of the Advocate-on-Record suitably according to the nature of the case.

40. Save as otherwise provided in these Rules, the fees provided in the Second Schedule, other than items I and 2 of part I, shall be subject to reduction in the discretion of the Taxing Officer according to the nature of the case.

41. The allowances to be made to witnesses per diem shall be such as the Taxing Officer may think reasonable having regard to the profession or status of the witnesses, but shall not exceed rupees five hundred per diem unless the Court otherwise directs.

42. Witnesses residing more than five miles from the place where the Court sits shall be allowed traveling expenses according to the sums reasonable and actually paid by them and shall also be allowed such a sum for subsistence money and carriage hire as the Taxing Officer, having regard to the daily allowance fixed under Rule 41 considers reasonable.

43. Every person summoned to give evidence shall have tendered to him with the summons a reasonable sum for his traveling expenses (if any) and for the first day's attendance and shall, if obliged to attend for more than one day, be entitled before giving his evidence, to claim from the party by whom he has been summoned the appropriate allowance and expenses for each additional day that he may be required to attend.

44. Witnesses who have not been paid such reasonable sums for their expenses as the Court allows by its Rules may apply to the Court at any time in person to enforce the payment of such sum as may be awarded to them.

45. For the purposes of this Order, a page shall consist of one full page hundred words; seven figures shall be counted as one word; and part of a page exceeding fifty words shall be reckoned as a page. A

46. Where the party having the charge of the bill does not appear on the date fixed for taxation, the Taxing Officer may make an order that bill be rejected. An application for the restoration of the bill shall be made within fourteen days from the date of the rejection of the bill, and the Taxing Officer may, for sufficient cause shown, revise and tax the bill.

47. A party dissatisfied with the order of the Taxing Officer under the last preceding rule may, not later than seven days from the date of order, or within such further time as the Taxing Officer or the Court may allow, apply to the Court for an order that the bill be restored.

48. Subject to any agreement in writing to the contrary, the rules regulating the taxation of the costs between party and party shall be applicable as far as may be to taxation between Advocate-on-Record and client.

49. If an Advocate-on-Record makes an agreement in writing with his client as to his remuneration in respect of any business done or to be done by him in any proceedings in this Court the amount payable under the agreement shall not be received by the Advocate-on-Record until the agreement has been examined and allowed by the Taxing Officer and if the Taxing Officer is of opinion that the amount is unfair or unreasonable, he may seek the direction of the presiding Judge of the Bench hearing the appeal, cause or matter and the Judge may reduce the amount payable thereunder, or order the agreement to be cancelled and the costs covered thereby to be taxed as if the agreement had never been made.

50. Where a dispute arises between the Advocate-on-Record and his client as to fees and charges payable to the Advocate-on-Record in any proceeding before the Court, either party may apply to the Taxing Officer for an order to have the bill taxed in accordance with the provisions of this Order. The application, when made by the Advocate-on-Record shall be accompanied by a copy of the bill sought to be taxed.

51. The Advocate-on-Record whose bill against his client has been taxed may apply to the Court for an order against his client or his legal representative for payment of the sum allowed on taxation or such sum thereof as may remain due to him. The order so made may be transmitted for execution to such Court or tribunal as the Court may direct.

52. Where it is necessary to enforce payment of costs under direction of the Registrar, an order for that purpose shall be obtained from a Judge. Application for such orders may be made, without notice, by petition, supported by a certificate of the Registrar.

53. The Court may on the application of a client or his representative in-interest direct an Advocate-on-Record to deliver up any documents or papers to the possession of which the applicant may be entitled, and pass such other order in this behalf as the circumstances of the case may require, including orders as to the costs of the application.

PART VIIMISCELLANEOUS*ORDER XXXI*NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS TO LAW OFFICERS OF THE STATE

1. The Court may direct notice of any proceedings to be given either through ordinary or digital means to the Attorney-General or the Advocate-General or the Prosecutor General, as the case may be, who shall appear and act as required by the Court.
2. The Attorney-General, or the Advocate-General, may apply to be heard in any proceedings before the Court and the Court may, if in its opinion the justice of the case so requires, permit such law officers to be heard, subject to such terms as the Court may think fit.
3. For the purpose of this Order, the expression:
 - (a) "Attorney-General for Pakistan" includes an Additional Attorney-General, Deputy Attorney-General and Assistant Attorney-General;
 - (b) "Advocate-General" includes an Additional Advocate-General and Assistant Advocate-General; and
 - (c) "Prosecutor General" includes a Director General Prosecution, an Additional Prosecutor General and Deputy Prosecutor General.

ORDER XXXIIFORMS TO BE USED

1. Every summons, order, warrant or other mandatory process shall be signed by the Registrar with the day and the year of signing, and shall bear the Seal of the Court.
2. The forms set out in the Sixth Schedule to these Rules, or forms substantially to the like effect with such variations as the circumstances of each case may require, shall be used in all cases where those forms are appropriate.

ORDER XXXIII
SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

1. Except where otherwise provided by any statute or these Rules, all notices, orders or other documents required to be given to, or served on any person shall be served in the manner provided by the Code for the service of summons, and/or through digital means:

Provided that each of the parties shall notify the Registrar of the address of his residence, his telephone/mobile/digital App number and email address and of any change therein, and any notice, summons or other documents delivered or sent through post or through digital means to the said party at the address, telephone/mobile/digital App number or email address so notified by him, shall be deemed to have been properly served.

2. Service of any notice, order or other document on the Advocate-on-Record of any party may be affected by delivering it to the Advocate-on-Record or by leaving it at his place of business or by sending to his address by registered post and/or through digital means.

3. Service of any notice, order or other document upon a person, other than an Advocate-on-Record, residing at a place within the territories of Pakistan, between which place and the seat of the Court there is communication by registered post, may be affected by posting a copy of the document, required to be served in a pre-paid envelope registered for acknowledgment, address to the party or person at the place where he ordinarily resides and/or through digital means:

Provided that the Registrar may direct in a particular case or class of cases, that the service shall be affected in the manner provided by the Code for the service of summons.

4. A document served by post or digital means shall be deemed to be served at the time at which it could have been delivered in the ordinary course of post or digital means.

5. Except where the notice or process has been served through the Registry, the party required to effect the service shall file an affidavit of service, alongwith such proof thereof as may be available, stating the manner in which the service has been affected.

6. Where the notice, order or other document has been served through another Court, the service may be proved by the deposition or affidavit of the service officer made before the Court through which the service was affected.

7. Service affected after Court hours shall for the purpose of computing any period of time subsequent to that service be deemed to have been affected on the following day.

ORDER XXXIV

COMMISSIONS

1. Order XXVI in the First Schedule to the Code with respect to commission shall apply except rules 13,14,19,20,21 and 22.

2. An application for the issue of a commission may be made by summons in Chambers after notice to all parties who have appeared, or ex-parte where there has been no appearance.

3. The Court may, when the commission is not one for examination on interrogatories, order that the commissioner shall have all the powers of a Court under Chapter X of the Qanun-e-Shahadat, 1984, to decide questions as to the admissibility of evidence and to disallow any question put to a witness.

4. The commissioner shall record a question disallowed by him and the answer thereto, but the same shall not be admitted in evidence until the Court so directs.

5. Unless otherwise ordered the party, at whose instance the commission is ordered to issue, shall submit in the Court copies of the pleadings and issues in the case within twenty-four hours of the making of the order and those copies shall be annexed to the commission when issued.

6. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commissioner refusing to admit documentary evidence may apply to the Court within a period of fourteen days of the date of the submission of the report to set aside the decision and for direction to the commissioner to admit the evidence.

7. After the deposition of any witness has been taken down and before it is signed by him, it shall be read over and, where necessary, translated to the witness. Every page of the deposition shall be signed by him and left with the commissioner who shall subscribe his name and the date of the examination.

8. Commission shall be made returnable within such time as the Court may direct.

ORDER XXXV

INHERENT POWERS

1. The Court or any Judge or Judges thereof may, for sufficient cause shown, excuse the parties from compliance with any of the requirements of these Rules, and may give such directions in matter of practice and procedure as it shall consider just and expedient.
2. An application to be excused from compliance with the requirements of any of the Rules shall be addressed in the first instance to the Registrar, who shall take the directions of the Court or of any Judge or Judges thereof and communicate the same to the party or parties as the case may be.
3. The Court may enlarge or abridge any time appointed by these Rules, or fixed by any order enlarging time, for doing any act or taking any proceeding, upon such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require, and any enlargement may be ordered, although the application therefore is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed or allowed.
4. The Court may at any time, either of its own motion or on the application of any party, make such orders as may be necessary or reasonable in respect of any of the matters mentioned in these Rules, may issue summons to persons whose attendance is required either to give evidence or to produce documents, or order any fact to be proved by affidavit.
5. The Court shall have powers to pass any decree and make any order which ought to have been passed or made and pass or make such further or other decree or order as the case may require, and this power may be exercised by the Court notwithstanding the appeal is as to part only of the decree and may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have filed any appeal or objection.
6. Nothing in these Rules shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent powers of the Court, to be exercised after recording reasons in writing, to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the Court, either on its own motion or on an application made by an aggrieved person.
7. Where at any stage of the proceedings in the Court, there has been a failure to comply with these Rules, the failure shall be treated as an irregularity and shall not nullify the proceedings or the judgement. The Court may, on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as it thinks just set aside either wholly or in part the proceedings in which such failure has occurred.

ORDER XXXVI

FIFTH SCHEDULE

RULES AS TO PRINTING OF RECORD

1. All records and other proceedings in appeals or other matters pending before the Supreme Court shall be printed in the form known as Demy Quarto/legal.

2. The size of the paper used shall be such that the sheet when folded and trimmed, will be 11 inches in length and 8 inches in width.

3. The format to be used shall be Font name: Bookman Old Style, Font size: 14, Line spacing: 1.5, Page numbering: right side top (not on 1st page), Header: left side (case number in italics), Quotation font: Bookman Old Style, Quotation font size: 12, Quotation line spacing: 1.5, Quotation indent: 0.5 (From both sides), Citations style: Nadeem Ramzan v The State (2018 SCMR 149) (italics with no underlining), Page settings: Top 1.5, Bottom 2.0; Left 2.0, Right 1.0; Gutter 0.0 Gutter position left.

4. Records shall be arranged in two parts in the same volumes, where practicable, viz:-

Part 1:- The pleadings and proceedings, the transcript of the evidence of the witnesses, the judgements decrees, etc., of the Courts below down to the order admitting the appeal.

Part II:- The exhibits and documents

5. The index to Part I shall be in chronological order and shall be placed at the beginning of the volume. The index to Part II shall follow the order of the exhibit mark, and shall be placed immediately after the index to Part I.

6. Part I shall be arranged strictly in chronological order, i.e., in the same order as the index.

Part II shall be arranged in the most convenient way for the use of the Court, as the circumstances of the case require. The documents shall be printed as far as suitable in chronological order. Each document shall show its exhibits mark, and whether it is a plaintiff's or defendant's document (unless this is clear from the exhibit mark) and in all cases documents relating to the same matter such as:-

(a) a series of correspondence, or

- (b) proceedings in a suit other than the one under appeal shall be kept together. The order in the record of the documents in Part-II will probably be different from the order of the index, and the proper page number of each document shall be inserted in the printed index.

The parties will be responsible for arranging the record in proper order for the Court, and in difficult cases counsel may be asked to settle it.

7. The documents in Part I shall be numbered consecutively.

The documents in Part II shall not be numbered, apart from the exhibit mark.

8. Each document shall have a heading which shall consist of the number of exhibit mark and the description of the document in the index, without the date.

9. Each document shall have marginal note which shall be repeated on each page over which the document extends, viz.

PART I

(a) Where the case has been before more than one Court, the short name of the court shall first appear. Where the case has been before only one court, the name of the court need not appear.

(b) The marginal note of the document shall then appear consisting of the number and the description of the documents in the index, with the date, except in the case of oral evidence.

(c) In the case of oral evidence, "Plaintiffs evidence" or "Defendant's evidence" shall appear beneath the name of the court, and then the marginal note consisting of the number in the index and the witness's name, with "Examination", "Cross-Examination", or "re-Examination", as the case may be.

PART II

The word "Exhibits" shall first appear.

The marginal note of the exhibit shall then appear consisting of the exhibit mark and the description of the document in the index with the date.

10. The parties shall agree to the omission of formal and irrelevant documents, but the description of the document may appear (both in the index and in the record), if desired, with the word "not printed" against it.

A long series of documents such as accounts, rent rolls, inventories, etc., shall not be printed in full, unless counsel so advises, but the parties shall agree to short extracts being printed as specimens.

11. In case where maps are of an inconvenient size or unsuitable in character, the appellant shall, in agreement with the respondent, prepare maps drawn, property to scale, and of reasonable size, showing as far as possible, the claims of the respective parties, in different colours.

12. Charges for duplicating the record:-

(i)	For typing/printing charges per page...	¹ [20]
(ii)	Photocopy charges per page	² [20]
(iii)	Preparation of index for every ten entries	³ [20]
